

Septic System 101

If you have a septic system, have it inspected annually and pumped out as needed (usually every 3-4 years).

An improperly working septic system can contaminate ground water and create public health problems.

DO NOT add grease or household hazardous products to your septic systems.